I. ABOUT NSOU

Netaji Subhas Open University is the premier State Open University in India. The year 1997 was the birth centenary year of Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose. The then Chief Minister of West Bengal made an announcement at a State function that an Open University would be set up soon and dedicated to Netaji's hallowed memory. The then Higher Education Minister, Govt. of West Bengal spearheaded the idea after his visit to the Open University in U.K. Under his instruction was set up a ten-member steering committee headed by late Dr. Bhaskar Ray Chowdhury, former Vice-Chancellor of Calcutta University. Subsequently, Netaji Subhas Open University was established through WB Act of XIX of 1997. Currently the University has six Schools of Studies viz. School of Humanities, School of Social Sciences, School of Sciences, School of Education, School of Professional Studies and School of Vocational Studies. The Netaji Subhas Open University, the State Open University for Open and Distance Learning, with UGC-DEB, AICT and RCI recognition, and provides seamless access to sustainable and learner-centric quality education, skill upgradation and training to all by using innovative technologies and methodologies and ensuring convergence of existing systems for large-scale human resource development, required for promoting national development.

The University is committed to quality in teaching, research, training and extension activities, and acts as a State Open University for expertise and infrastructure in the ODL system. The University has established multiple Centre for Innovation in Distance Education, to focus on specific learner groups and enrich the distance learning system.

Netaji Subhas Open University started function from July 1998. In 2020, Netaji Subhas Open University has been accredited with Grade "A" by the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC).

As a State Open University, NSOU has the rare credit of enrolling near about 4.75 lakhs learners in different programmes across a wide spectrum of academic disciplines, both in conventional and non-conventional programmes.

2. VISION & MISSION

Vision :

The NSOU, the only State Open University in West Bengal, delivers to build up the quality human resource base of the State and, along with other Open Universities of the country, and moves towards the improvement of the quality of open distance education. It also intends to promote and develop appropriate ambience to develop an international standard distance education scenario in our country, keeping in view of the demands for education of the learners in tune with the requirements of the twenty-first century.

Mission :

- ✓ To propagate quality education in flexible mode all over the State and to provide access to different skills- enhancing educational programmes.
- ✓ To collaborate with other Higher Education Institutions (HEIs) for academic and research endeavours.
- ✓ To provide education in the vernacular language, i.e., Bengali and making it available at low cost to the underprivileged people.
- ✓ To provide facility of life long education to the intending learners.
- ✓ To integrate technological tools in the pedagogy for facilitating the learning experiences.
- ✓ To contribute to the existing body of knowledge through research and extension activities.
- ✓ To render services for the development of the State in particular and the Nation in general in order to sensitize the learners towards a humanistic and democratic ecosystem.

3. RESEARCH POLICY

The Research Policy has been enunciated to guide the future of research in the University. A principal objective of NSOU's research project has been to maintain a strong focus on the flow of theoretical ideas and to connect it with the empirical works of subject oriented researches in social sciences, humanities, commerce & management, sciences and other disciplines offered by the University as areas of probe and investigation from time to time.

A research project is an opportunity to learn more about a particular subject. Through this process one can enhance and demonstrate a wide range of skills that are applicable to our real life. As a researcher, it is important to use a wide variety of sources and to evaluate the quality and validity of those sources. The purpose of research is to add knowledge. Thus, the study should seek to contextualize its findings within the larger body of research. Research project should add knowledge that is applicable outside the organization and society as whole. Above all, the results of the study should have implications for policy and project implementation.

Taking into considerations the importance, the University encourages its faculty members to carry out research projects in different subjects and provides financial assistance subject to availability of fund from government/ research institutions viz. MHRD, UGC-DEB, ICSSR, CSIR, DST, RCI, CIIL, IIAS, CSSS, CSGS etc. for their projects. The ambit of project work in the University has been expanded to include both theoretical and empirical research in various academic disciplines (core subjects). Interdisciplinary areas with blending approach of ODL methodology may also be accepted.

4. INTRODUCTION

Research is considered as the highest level of academic activity of any higher education institute (HEI). The aim of the research is to create new and original knowledge in the different fields of higher studies either through discovering new facts or by interpreting the existing available data in a fresh and innovative ways or it could also be a combination of these two means. It always aims to contribute new knowledge, facts and interpretation in the expanding domain of knowledge.

Faculty members / scientist of the equivalent rank of Professor / Associate Professor / Assistant Professor working in other HEIs / Central Government / State Government research institutions can be recognized as a Co-Supervisor if they fulfil above requirements.

Co-Supervisors from within the same department or other departments of the University or from other Institutions may be permitted with the approval of the RAC.

Adjunct Faculty members will not act as Research Supervisors and can only act as Co-Supervisors.

Faculty members with less than three years of service before superannuation shall not be allowed to take new research scholars under their supervision. However, such faculty members can continue to supervise Ph.D. scholars who are already registered until superannuation and act as a Co-Supervisor after superannuation, but not after attaining the age of 70 years. Other modalities for allocation of Research Supervisor or Co-Supervisors for a selected Ph.D. student will be decided by the DRC of the respective Schools as Netaji Subhas Open University, Ph.D. Regulations, 2023 relating to award of Ph.D. degree.

18. SOME IMPORTANT RULES

Change of Supervisor: If after enrollment, a change of Supervisor or of Joint Supervisor or of both is considered necessary, the candidate may apply to the DRC through the proposed supervisor(s) for the purpose, and with the concurrence of the previous supervisor(s). Ph.D.-RAC will forward such applications along with the recommendations to RAC for approval.

Reconsideration of Synopsis: If the RAC does not consider a Synopsis as fit for recommendation, it shall again be examined by the Ph.D.-RAC ordinarily within three months. The report of the Ph.D.-RAC will be placed for RAC for recommendation.

Modification/Change of Title: The title of the thesis and the synopsis may be modified, if necessary, by the student and duly forwarded by the Supervisor with due concurrence of the Ph.D.-RAC and with approval of the chairperson of RAC. However, such modification may be permitted within one year of Registration.

Change of Language: Normally the language of the thesis shall be English (except Ph.D. programme in Bengali) unless the RAC allowed to use language other than English on the request of the Ph.D. student.

Change of Topic/ Research Area/ Theme/ Subject: No change in topic (keeping research area, theme or subject unchanged) will be permitted after six months of the registration. However, in exceptional cases, RAC may allow the change in topic after six months. In case of major change, such as research area, theme or subject the candidate will need to go through the process of admission afresh.

19. CANCELLATION OF REGISTRATION

Beside the instance mentioned in the "REGISTRATION TO PH.D." section, Ph.D. registration of a Student is liable to be cancelled for any of the following reasons on the recommendation of RAC:

- ❑ Non-payment of any fees as and when ever notified by the University.
- ❑ Non-commencement of research work till the completion of 2 years years after final registration.
- ❑ Consistent lack of progress in research as observed by Ph.D.-RAC on the basis of report submitted by the research Supervisor of the Student.
- ❑ Violation of discipline, conduct and rules of the Department / School/ University.
- ❑ Non-submission of the thesis within the completion of maximum 06 years of registration without any notice.
- ❑ Giving any false information at the time of application/ admission/ registration, which can adversely effect on the validity of the Student or his/her research work.

A letter of final notice to the Student will be issued in occurrence of any of the above reasons and total 30 working days may be given to the Student for defending his/her case in person in front of RAC, failing which the University is free to take decision and action on its own cognizance and may cancel his/her registration for Ph.D. Programme permanently.

20. REVIEW OF PROGRESS

Students have to appear before the Ph.D.-RAC once in six months to make a presentation of the progress of his/her work for evaluation and further guidance after registration.

The presentation should include an elaborate description of the reading, writing, data collection or any other work done in relation to the research. The student can also mention difficulties encountered, if any.

Ph.D.-RAC will submit progress report, in prescribed proforma (available on the website), half yearly to RAC mentioning in unambiguous terms whether the progress is satisfactory or not and whether the work done during the period under consideration is relevant and adequate or not.

Only after the approval of RAC regarding the satisfactory progress of the work, the Student may be allowed to continue his/her research in the next term.

In case the progress of the research student is unsatisfactory, the Ph.D.-RAC will record the reasons for the same and suggest corrective measures. If the research student fails to implement these corrective measures not in exceeding three months, the Ph.D.-RAC may recommend the same to next meeting of RAC with specific reasons for cancellation of the registration of the student.

21. SUBMISSION OF DRAFT THESIS

Upon satisfactory completion of Course Work and obtaining the marks/grade, a Ph.D. student can submit the Draft Thesis after two and a half years since admission and must submit within
